Ping Yik Soon 34600329

Domestic Air Travel in Australia

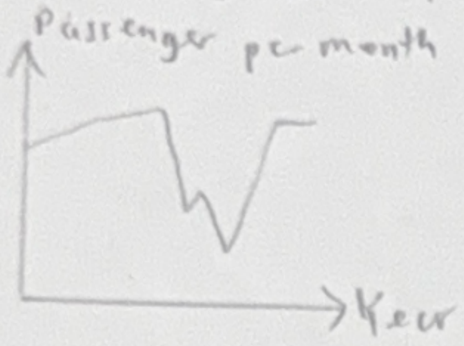

Introduction.

Australia is about 23 times the size of Malaysia. Flying is the most practical way to get around.

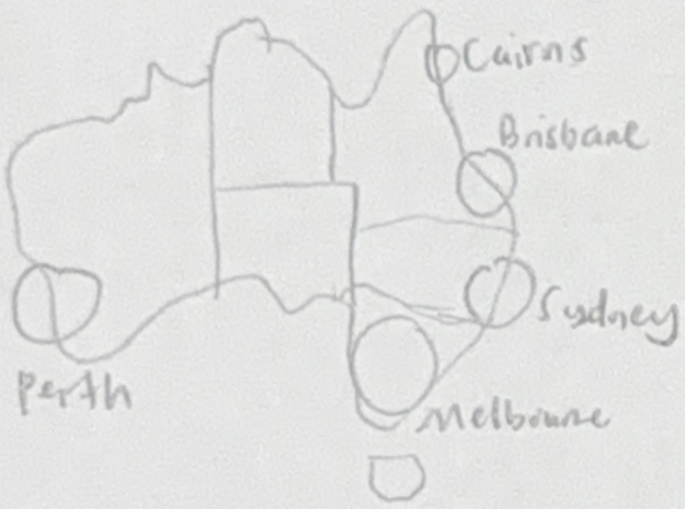

① The Big Picture

Australia's Domestic Passenger Trends

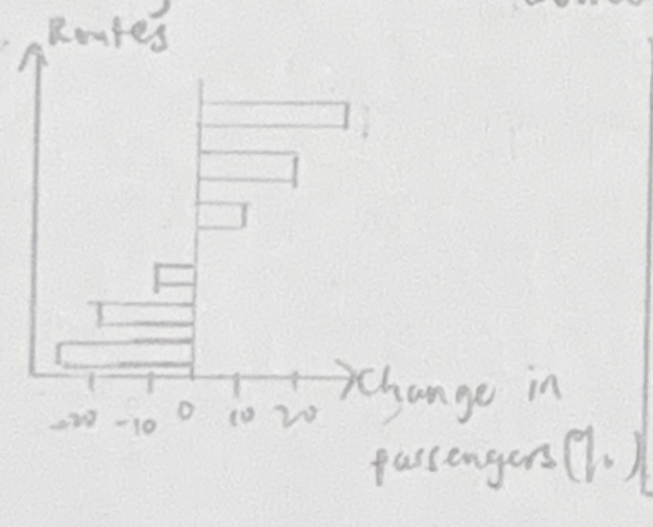

Key findings
- 97% collapse during covID-19

Australia's Domestic Aviation Hub

Key findings:
- metropolitan hubs dominate traffic
- lower traffic at regional airports

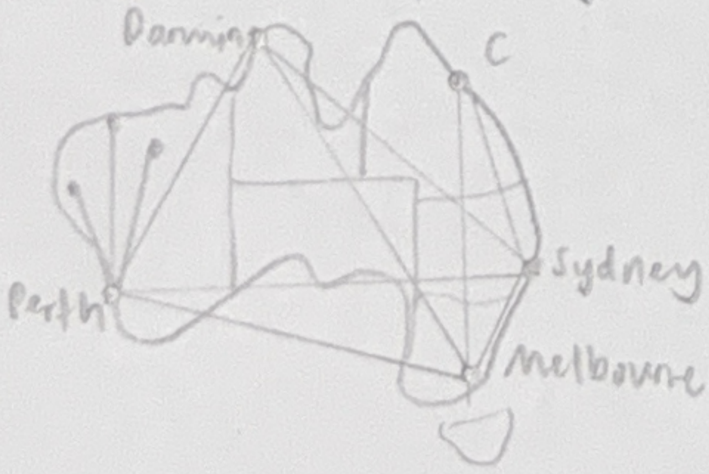

Change in Busiest Domestic Routes

Key Findings:
- Brisbane - Perth leads the growth
- routes recovery remain uneven

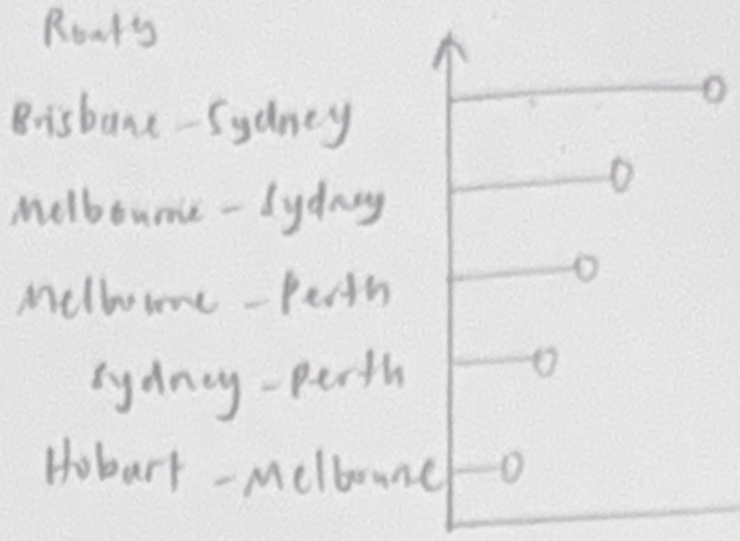

② Mapping Australia's Domestic Flight Network

Australia Domestic Flight Network

Key findings:
- Melbourne and Sydney connect many cities
- Perth connect distant destinations

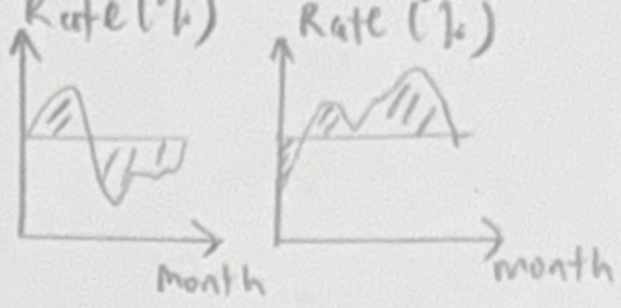

Australia Top 5 Busiest Routes

Key finding
- major East Cost routes carry high traffic

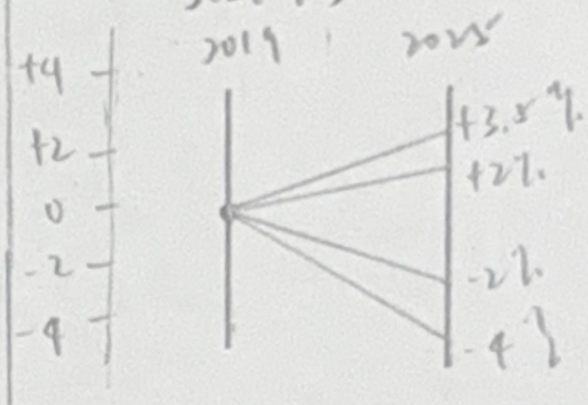

③ Seasonality and Demand

Monthly Passenger Patterns Across Routes

Key findings
- leisure routes show distinct seasonal peaks

Change in Aviation Activity

Key findings:
- fewer flights but high in passenger loads

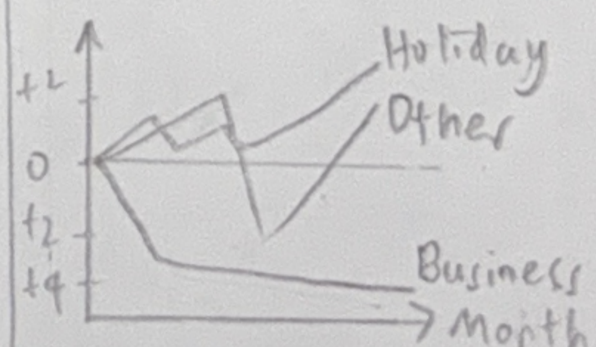

④ Air Travel Purposes and Behaviours

Domestic Air Travel Growth

Key findings:
- Domestic air travel trips increase across all states

Diverging Trends in Domestic Travel by Purpose

Key findings
- holiday is the strongest growth
- business travel declines across the months

Conclusion:

Australia domestic flights have climbed back since 2022 and remain significant.